FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 05/10/1999

Chris Tibaldo, date of birth 9/8/1981, 7444 South Zephyr Court, Littleton, Colorado 80123 was interviewed by Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Special Agent (SA) Matthew R. Hellman and Colorado State Patrol (CSP) Investigator Perry J. Powell in the presence of his mother Diana Graves and his attorney Scott Baroway, at the law offices of Dawson and Baroway, 3677 S. Huron Street #105, Englewood, Colorado 80110. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing agents and the nature of the interview, Tibaldo provided the following information:

Tibaldo knew both Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold, shooters in the attack on Columbine High School. Tibaldo did not know Harris very well, he only sat near Harris at lunch and saw him once in a while before school. Harris seemed to be fairly quiet. Tibaldo knew Klebold better than he knew Harris. Tibaldo, Klebold and Zach Heckler hung out in the computer lab together, putting together computers for the school. They also shared knowledge about the "Linux" operating system, though Klebold and Heckler knew relatively little about it compared to Tibaldo. Klebold seemed like a happy person and did not talk about killing. Klebold would give Tibaldo a ride home from school on occasion. Tibaldo had not seen Klebold for several months because Tibaldo quit going to school at CHS and hasn't been there since around January 4, 1999.

Tibaldo had been attending Warren Tech High School but dropped out recently to pursue either a career or college.

On April 20, 1999, Tibaldo was awakened, at home, by his mother at approximately 2:30 P.M. She told him about the shooting that was going on at school. Tibaldo called his friend Zach Heckler and spoke to his mother who said that Zach was OK. He then called Heckler's girlfriend, Devon Adams and spoke to her sister who said that Devon was OK. Neither Adams nor Heckler knew of Klebold's whereabouts. Tibaldo had heard on the news that the shooters were wearing trench coats and was concerned about the people he knew. He called Adam's house again around 6:00 P.M. and Heckler was there. Still, no one had heard from Klebold.

Tibaldo only knew by name Chris Morris and Zach Heckler as being associates of Harris and Klebold. There were others that Tibaldo did not know or talk to. Tibaldo feels that if there was anyone else involved with the attack, it may be [REDACTED]. He does not think that Zach Heckler was involved with the attack. Because Tibaldo has not attended CHS in the last several months, he has not seen Klebold or Harris for a long time. While attending CHS, Tibaldo never saw Klebold or Harris hanging around with anyone that wasn't a student.

[REDACTED] talked about guns a lot. He said that he had several guns but Tibaldo could not recall any specifics. [REDACTED] has a very short temper; he gets very angry very quickly and easily. Tibaldo never really talked to [REDACTED] because he did not want to get on [REDACTED] bad side. Tibaldo says that [REDACTED] "has issues."

Tibaldo knows that Klebold and Harris used the Internet but never saw any messages or use that was unusual. Tibaldo, Heckler and Klebold would communicate using Internet Relay Chat (IRC) on occasion. They typically talked about "Linux." Tibaldo does not know if Klebold talked with anyone else on IRC. Chris did not play games with Klebold or Harris because games bore him. He does know that Klebold played a lot of "Quake."

Tibaldo set up his own Domain server on the Internet called "lightened.com." His e-mail address is blade@lightened.com. Zach Heckler used to have an e-mail address with him of Kibbz@lightened.com. Heckler also had an e-mail address of Kibbz@concentric.net. If it's available, Tibaldo uses the nickname "blade" when he enters chat rooms. Sometimes he will alter it slightly such as "blade^" if "blade" is already taken. Tibaldo frequently participates in chat rooms using IRC. There are some people who he has had contact with for over three years. These people even have his telephone number and call him once in a while. Tibaldo also has accounts at Netzero and Earthlink. Tibaldo's mother has an America On Line account.

Flacko and Brian Ford. Tibaldo met Ford at CHS during freshman year, about two years ago. Ford dropped out of school so that he could work. Ford currently works as a cook at Pasta's Italian Restaurant. Ford's e-mail address is cash@lightened.com. Ford also has his own computer.

Tibaldo has never made any bombs with the exception of one time he put water and Alka Seltzer in a closed container, but it didn't do anything.

Tibaldo has never said anything that could be mistaken as a threat. He has said that he hates his school. Tibaldo has never said that he helped make the bombs, helped map where the bombs should be placed, that he was the third shooter or that he knew someone else who was involved.

Christopher stated he knew both Eric and Dylan. Christopher used to sit with Eric at a table at Columbine High School. Eric was very quiet. Did not know much about Eric. Christopher knew Dylan from Computer Lab in School. Has known Dylan for approximately one year.

Christopher last went to Columbine High in fall of 1998, part time. Has been enrolled in Warren Tech. for the last year, but did not complete the three semesters he need. Has not been in Warren Tech. since March of this year. Christopher stated he has not been in Columbine High since January 4th or 5th of this year.

On April 20th, Christopher stated he was home sleeping when the incident occurred. Diana Graves, Christopher's mother, stated she woke Christopher up around 2:30 to 3:00 PM so he could watch the news on TV. Christopher immediately started calling all his friends to see if they were alright. Christopher was unable to contact Dylan and did not know what to think. Christopher was able to contact Zach and Devon Adams. Around 6:00 PM Christopher called Devon Adams and Zach was there with her. From the description they were hearing on TV they knew that one of the parties involved was Dylan.

The only people Christopher knew that hung around with Dylan were Chris Morris and Zach. Zach was Dylan's best friend.

Christopher would hang out with Arron Bosswell, Brian Ford and Gavin Flacko.

Christopher stated he does not feel anyone else was involved. When asked what should happen to anyone else involved Christopher stated, "They should be put in jail for the rest of their life, no body deserves to die."

Christopher stated if anyone else was involved it would be [REDACTED] always talked about guns a lot and had a very quick temper.

Christopher stated the person he would say would be the last to be involved would be Zach. Zach would never be involved with anything like that. Anybody in their right mind would turn someone in if they were involved.

Christopher never heard anything about bombs or the incident prior to it occurring. Christopher has not seen

JC- 001-010905

Chris Morris since before the bombing. Christopher never played around making bombs, except approximately 4 years ago he experimented with Alka-seltzer and water. Put cap on end of bottle and shake it but nothing happened.

Christopher stated Zach and Dylan were not computer wizards. He never seen either of them use Internet to say anything weird. Dylan, Zach and Christopher would get into a chat room on IRC and talk once in a while. Mostly they would talk about Linnx programming.

Christopher uses Neto for server and his mother (Diana Graves) uses AOL as her server

Christopher supplied the following e-mail addresses:

Christopher - Blagov@lightnet.net

Zach - Krisite@lightnet.net

Brian Ford - Flash@lightnet.net

Christopher never got into playing games on the computer or on the Internet.

Christopher never made any type of statement that could be taken in anyway to associate him with the Columbine incident. Christopher knows of no one who would say he was involved in anyway. No one dislikes him enough to say anything like that.

Christopher stated he has never said nor made any statement concerning the following:

- 1) Anything to the effect he helped make the bombs.
- 2) Anything to the effect he was or knew anything about a third shooter
- 3) Anything to the effect he helped map out the area or assisted in placing the bombs in Columbine High.

Christopher stated there is nothing on the computers we seized from his residence that he is concerned about. There is nothing on the computers to indicate he is involved in the incident.

Christopher advised he is willing to take a lie detector test, which he would pass with no problem.

DATE TYPED: April 23, 1999

On April 23, 1999 at 1112 hours I received a phone call from a male who would only identify himself as:

Warren

Warren stated that last night he was in an IRC chat room:

FNET #lightened

Two users in the room identified only as:

Cash

claimed to be members of the Trench Coat Mafia. They said that they got guns from the: free of charge because of a promise to conduct the assault on Hitler's birthday. Cash and Blade said they helped make the pipe bombs and were in the Library when Eric came in, and they were allowed to escape. One of them claimed to be the third gunman.

Warren recorded one of the sessions, but was unable to record the other session.

He would transmit the recorded information to me via e-mail. I also sent him an email requesting for him to send a written statement of what he could remember from the missing chat room recording. Warren said that his email address was:

decjav@greatland.net

As of April 23, 1999, 1443 hours, I have not received a reply from Warren.

Investigation

On 04-20-99 at about 2000 hours, I interviewed Eric Veik at Leawood Elementary School in the presence of his father, Gary Veik. Eric stated that he had information about the shootings that occurred at Columbine High School. Eric stated the suspects were members of the Trench Coat Mafia. He identified the members as Eric Harris, Dylon Klebold, Rob (last name unknown) and Chris Morris.

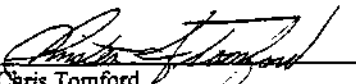

Eric stated that he knew the suspects from his video productions class at school. He said the members of the Trench Coat Mafia wore black clothing and trench coats. He stated they "intimidate everyone" and "retaliate against people who insult them". Eric Veik said that he knew by the descriptions of the shooters that one of them was Eric Harris. Eric Harris had made some reference to "graduation was coming up" and "April 20th as Hitler's Birthday".

Eric Veik stated that he had helped several members of the Trench Coat Mafia make some movies. The last movie he helped them with was called "Revenge for Hire". Eric Veik stated he played a guy in need and the members of the Trench Coat Mafia shot people with plastic weapons to avenge him. Eric said there were a lot of other videotapes made in which Harris and Klebold simulated violent acts. Eric Veik stated that there were two videos at Columbine High School made by Harris and Klebold that had been given to their video teacher, Gary Talocco for grading. Eric said that on those videos, Harris and Klebold said that they had access to guns, bomb recipes from the internet and talked about explosives. Eric Veik said that the Trench Coat Mafia target any "ethnic group". He estimated there were about 15 members of this group.

Eric Veik handed me a videotape of Harris and Klebold that he had in his possession. This videotape was secured and later given to Investigator Diane Obbema to be placed in the JCSO evidence vault. Eric said that he had more tapes in his backpack at school. Columbine Task Force members later recovered these tapes.

Eric Veik concluded the interview by stating that Nick Romanyshyn had told him that Rachel Scott, a friend of Eric Veik, was shot and killed. Eric Veik stated that Brooks Brown was told ten minutes before the shootings began to get out of school by Dylon Klebold who also told Brown, "I like you".

I obtained contact numbers for Eric Veik and told him a more in-depth interview would be conducted in the near future.

INVESTIGATION:

On 04-21-99, I was advised by Deputy Scott Eddy that an individual, identifying himself as Eric Veik, had informed him that he had taken video footage of the two suspects the previous week. The videotapes containing that footage were in a classroom just off the math hallway. I contacted Lab Supervisor Chris Andrist and advised him of the location of this new evidence. Andrist requested that I assist him in locating the videotapes. We entered the high school and located the tapes contained in a plastic bag, along with black leather type camera carrying bag, on the floor next to a desk in classroom MA-10. On top of the desk where the camera and videotapes were located was an unfinished Algebra exam. On the top of the exam was the name. Eric Veik.

On 04-22-99, I was assigned to interview Eric Veik at the Jefferson County Sheriff's Office. Veik had voluntarily come to the Office with his father because he wanted to talk with somebody regarding his videotapes. Veik was interviewed by Sergeant Chris Tomford and myself in an Investigations interview room.

Veik stated that a friend of his, Rachel Scott, had been a victim in the shooting at Columbine High School on 04-20-99. He stated he first met Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold in a video production class they had all taken together the previous semester. Harris was in the first hour class with Veik, and Klebold was in the same class during the second hour. Veik stated the teacher had put the students in groups and given them assignments for video productions. In Veik's group was Harris and Mike Vendengia. Klebold often joined their group in brainstorming sessions to come up with ideas for videos. Veik stated Klebold would often drop by their first hour class in order to talk with Harris. Veik stated there were three to four productions made. The features ran anywhere from five minutes up to twenty.

The first video project was an interview with a teacher named Mr. Long. The video was to feature Mike Vendengia as the interviewer. Harris was not thrilled about the idea, so they decided to do a practice interview. In the practice interview, Harris pretended to be Mr. Long, and Vendengia was the interviewer. While the practice interview was being filmed, Harris made many side comments. In response to the interviewer's question about what kind of technology was used to keep the school computers safe, Harris replied, "I use a shotgun, I keep the old shotgun under the desk." In response to the question about keeping up with growing technology, Harris replied, "I use drugs." Klebold was not a part of this interview, nor was he a part of the next video which involved the car chase.

In a written statement by Veik, which I requested he write prior to our interview being concluded. Veik included information about the car chase video. It was patterned after the TV program "COPS," and it was titled "CHS Highway Patrol." Vendengia and a friend of his, Chris Walker, were the cops who had separate vehicles. They were patrolling behind the McDonald's located on W. Coalmine Avenue, east on S. Pierce St. In this video they find Veik and Harris beating up a person (dummy) Veik and Harris then pick up the "person" and throw him in the trunk of Harris' car. The two are then chased by the "police officers" to Clement Park where they are stopped and arrested.

The next video was going to be filmed outside of Blackjack Pizza where Harris and Klebold work. It was going to be an infomercial about a car wax. In the skit, they used a bike. Vendengia was the consumer. Harris and Klebold were doing a demonstration, and they were dropping random objects on the bike. One scene included Harris with a crow bar and Klebold with a sledge hammer, completely demolishing the bike. Veik stated this production was never filmed because they lost interest in the idea.

Veik stated that in Harris' spare time, Harris would compile Hollywood movies which had action and weapons in it. He's make it into a music video. No one from the school group starred in it. The music that Harris used was a hard rock song called "Fire." All the scenes in the video involved clips of weapons, explosives, and destruction from the movies. Some of the movies used were "Terminator II," "Heat," "Starship Troopers," "Alien," and "Predator."

Veik stated Harris and Klebold asked him to film a video for them that they needed in their Government Economics class. The assignment was to create a business. Harris and Klebold came up with the idea of being hitman. The title of the video was "Hitman for Hire." The original title was "Revenge for Hire." In the video, Harris and Klebold were the hitmen, Veik was the victim, and Vendengia was the jock who was harassing Veik. Harris and Klebold used replicas of guns and spoke of killing in the video. Veik stated he never heard if this video was successful in the class Harris was doing it for.

In the "Hitman for Hire" video, the jock character is harassing Veik, who is very small in stature. Harris and Klebold are then sent to protect Veik. The two wore their trench coats and reflective glasses as part of their hitmen attire. Veik recalled a few specific scenes in the video. In one scene the jock character is shot and killed by Harris and Klebold after they pull out a gun and shoot him. Veik stated that a BB gun was used in the video. In another scene, which Veik referred to as the "intimidation scene", Harris and Klebold look into the camera as if the camera were the person they were speaking to. They then began to yell and curse into the camera. This video was filmed behind the Cooper 7 theater near the Blackjack Pizza which Harris worked.

The last video that Veik worked on with Harris and Klebold was titled "Radio Active Clothing." This was approximately 16 minutes long, and was taken from the movie, "Vampires", starring James Woods. Harris and Klebold were the stars in the video, and they used replica weapons in the filming of it. This was for Mr. Taloccos' class. The plot involved a small group of people going from town to town, stopping radioactive clothing from taking over the world. Veik stated the plot was written by Harris and Klebold. As they were filming, Veik noticed that the two were being extremely blunt. He asked them about it, and they responded, "Who cares. Taloccos is the only person that is going to see it, and he won't care." Harris was using military strategy in parts of this video. Veik stated that in the plot he and Vendengia get injured, and Harris and Klebold figure out a way to save them. The movie ends with a very large explosion from a house. This part of the video was created by using editing technology. Veik stated there were no explosives or live ammunition actually used in the video.

Veik remembers another idea which was never filmed. He stated the plots of this video had Vendengia and Walker as cops trying to solve a murder. Veik pretends to be a cop, but is really working for Harris who is the murderer.

Veik also filmed a couple of introductions to the RNN, which stands for the Rebel News Network. RNN is the Columbine School network. In one introduction, Klebold is alone on the street. He spills lighter fluid on the street, and then throws a match on it. When the lighter fluid lights up, it spells out the letters RNN. Veik stated this introduction was played over the school network.

A second introduction featured Harris in the school studio in his trench coat. Harris bends over, and with his two hands, begins to lift something that he has picked up off the ground. Through special technology, there was a ball of light on the ground that Harris was picking up. As he lifts the light higher, it explodes, and the explosion fills the screen with flickering lights. It is unknown if this was aired.

Veik stated he has not been to Klebold's house. He stated he has been to Harris' house once, in order to see whether or not the house could be used for one of their videos. Veik did not observe anything during the visit that concerned him, such as weapons or bomb making materials.

Veik does remember a time in which Harris told him that a person could learn to make bombs from information found on the Internet. He recalls Harris saying, "Anyone could do it." Veik stated Zach Heckler told him that Harris' mom had found a large bomb, Harris referred to as "Atlanta." This was a reference to the Olympic bombing in Atlanta. Veik said she had found it within the last year. Heckler told him about this two nights after the Columbine shootings. Veik stated he spent the two nights after the shooting with Rene Concella. On the second night was when Zach Heckler came to the house and talked with him.

Veik also stated that Heckler told him that he knew who had given the guns to Harris and Klebold, which were used in the shooting at Columbine High School. Veik stated Heckler had gone to the police with this information. Veik also said that Harris and Klebold have made and "test/detonated" pipe bombs near Chatfield Reservoir. He stated three of the bombs were small and one was large. He stated the large one was the one Harris had nicknamed "Atlanta." He stated there was also another bomb nicknamed "The Phoenix Project."

Veik stated Heckler is a good friend of Harris and Klebold's. Heckler drives a blue compact car that has the sticker on the back with the words "I hate everybody " He describes Heckler as a real large guy who does lighting work at the school when they do a drama. He describes Chris Morris as Heckler's best friend. Veik drives a red Pontiac Grand Am. He stated he parked it in the far east section of the Junior parking lot on the day of the shootings. Veik noticed when he parked his car, that Klebold's black BMW was parked at the south east corner of the Junior lot. He stated he noticed it because it was unusual that he would park there. Klebold usually parks right next to the commons area in his designated spot. Veik stated that the first three parking spaces, closest to the commons, belong to Heckler, Harris, and Klebold.

On the day of the shooting at Columbine, there were RNN anchor trials. Veik stated everybody was discussing "4-20 " He stated he believed it was the time that people would go out and start smoking marijuana. Veik stated that Rachel Scott came and did an audition along with others.

Veik stated the RNN features a phrase of the day each day. He stated the phrase of the day that had been planned for, he did not feel was appropriate, so he changed it. He wrote the phrase, which was aired that morning. The phrase was "how could you expect us to stay in school on a day like this?" Veik stated the original phrase of the day was by James Davis, a senior. The phrase was "quit your bitching." Davis told Veik he didn't care if it was inappropriate because he was going to be graduating in 16 days. Veik went ahead and changed the phrase because he felt it was inappropriate.

Veik stated on the day of the shootings, he was in his 5th hour math class taking a class. People began running past the door. They looked worried. Veik heard a teacher in the hallway yell, "Get out of the school as fast as you can." Veik then heard a large boom, and the fire alarm went off. Veik began running towards the main hallway. The doors between the hallway and stairway were shut. He could smell smoke. He said he was taken with the flow of kids running out of the building. When he got out of the building, he went to the park across the street from the school to the east. Veik stated it crossed his mind to take his video camera and videos with him, but thinking that it was a fire drill, and that he would be back within five minutes, he left them at his desk.

From the park on S. Pierce St., Veik could hear more explosions. Veik recalls some students, who he did not know, saying that they had observed a guy dressed in black, running from the commons area, outside the school southward, towards the south residential area. The guy dressed in black then jumped over the residential fence on the south side of the Senior parking lot area. The students described this unknown male as "running like hell." I asked Veik how far away he was from the area that they described the man running through. He stated the length of a football field, approximately 100 yards. Veik did not know the names of these students who saw this individual running and jumping over the fence. The individuals did tell him that they were going to tell a teacher about it.

I asked Veik if there were any additional copies of the videos he had left in the school room. He stated all the videos he had next to his camera bag were the originals. He stated he did not make copies of any of them, and he does not recall loaning any of the originals out to anyone. He did say that his teacher, Mr. Taloccos, was given the film "Radioactive Clothing." He believes that the teacher would have it in his office at the school. The video would either be a high 8 or VHS cassette.

Veik stated that he has video information on his own home computer. He has a Gateway 2000 computer. He stated he had one .AVI file. From that, he printed out a copy of what he had and gave it to Sergeant Tomford, who in turn gave the video to me. This video was placed into evidence. He stated that what he has on his computer's AVI file has not been deleted. Veik stated this information is located on the part of his computer titled "My Computer," under the "D" drive, under a folder named "Eric," and sub-folders with the names "Eric" and "Dylan."

I asked Veik to draw me a layout of the library and the studio, to indicate the computers in the school which may carry files with video information about Harris, Klebold and their projects. Veik also drew a map of the Tech Lab where computers would be located, and drew diagrams of where Klebold's vehicle was parked, also the direction in which the unknown male wearing black ran and jumped the fence, the location of how he exited the building, and where he and fellow students were standing when he heard that they had observed a man jumping the fence. These maps are attached to this report.

Veik indicated there might be tapes located in the studio. He stated there are two cameras in the studio. Tapes might be inside the cameras, or tapes might be found on the window sill located just behind the cameras. There are also two video files in the studio production room. Veik does not know if any videos that he has taken would be found in these areas, but that these areas are where videos would most likely be stored.

In Veik's diagram of the Tech Lab, he indicates three computers which would have been used by the suspects and might contain files with information. Veik stated he mainly used the computer located to the left of Mr. Long's office. He stated everyone used this computer. He stated the data that we would be looking for would probably be found under the category "My Computer." The second computer which might have information on it is the Macintosh computer. It is located on the table to the right of Mr Long's office. Veik stated this is an older Macintosh which is less used by the students. The third computer is a brand new Macintosh computer with a green casing. It is on the table next to Mr. Taloccos' office. Veik stated that the brand new Macintosh would probably not contain too much material since the students had not been trained on how to use it

Veik stated in getting on to these computers, after going into the "My Computer" area, one would have to enter an identification number. He said you could either hit a cancel key which will bypass this, or you will need to enter an identification number. This would be for the "D" drive. The identification number would be the first letter of the person's first name, followed by the person's last name, then the student's identification number. For example: EVEIK 528494.

Veik stated the school uses TCI as a cable company. Their channel is channel 27, and the in-school channel is channel 98. On the school channel is a marquee which repeats continually. One can press enter and go through the pages in different directions. He stated the suspects could have possibly used the studio to make a message on the marquee.

Veik states that he does not have his own Website, and did not know if any of the others had a Website. He stated that Columbine High School has its own computer server. Using space on the school's computer was on a first come first serve basis. No student had to pay for computer time.

Veik told me that he was upset with the what the media was saying about Harris and Klebold. He said they were portraying the two as monsters, and he did not see them that way. Veik recognizes what they have done and that they have killed one of his friends. Veik stated on 04-21-99, he went to Clement Park to speak with the media to let them know there was another side to the two suspects. When he spoke to the media, he told them that he had met the suspects in a video production class and that they had made some videos together. He did not disclose to the media the content of those videos. Veik stated he has been bombarded with calls from the media to try and obtain the videos he told them about. Veik stated he has no intention of giving them any information. Veik's father has placed a recording on the home phone which states that no messages will be taken from the media.

Veik became very tearful in the interview, when he expressed remorse for not having understood the danger that the two suspects posed to the school. Veik stated that although the suspect's ideas were different, he saw a creative side to them which he appreciated. Veik stated the suspects always treated him decently. He did not think that their preoccupation with violence indicated any serious threat. Veik expressed concern that he did not want any of the video footage he was a part of or had filmed to be exploited by the media.

I asked Veik if he had ever seen the suspects carrying items into the school, and he stated he did not. I asked him if he was ever asked by the suspects to help carry something into the school, and he stated no. I asked him if anyone told him that they had helped the suspects carry something into the school. He stated no one had told him that.

Veik stated a fellow student named Nick Romanyshyn (phone 303-972-9754) was in second hour this semester with the suspects. Romanyshyn stated he had noticed that the suspects did not come to their second hour class on Monday, 04-19-99. Later in the day, Romanyshyn saw Harris. Harris was in the hallway outside the Tech Lab sitting against the lockers. Harris said to Romanyshyn, "If I'm in your way, I'll move." Harris was sitting with a notebook in his hand. He told Romanyshyn, "I'm just working on finalizing my plans for tomorrow."

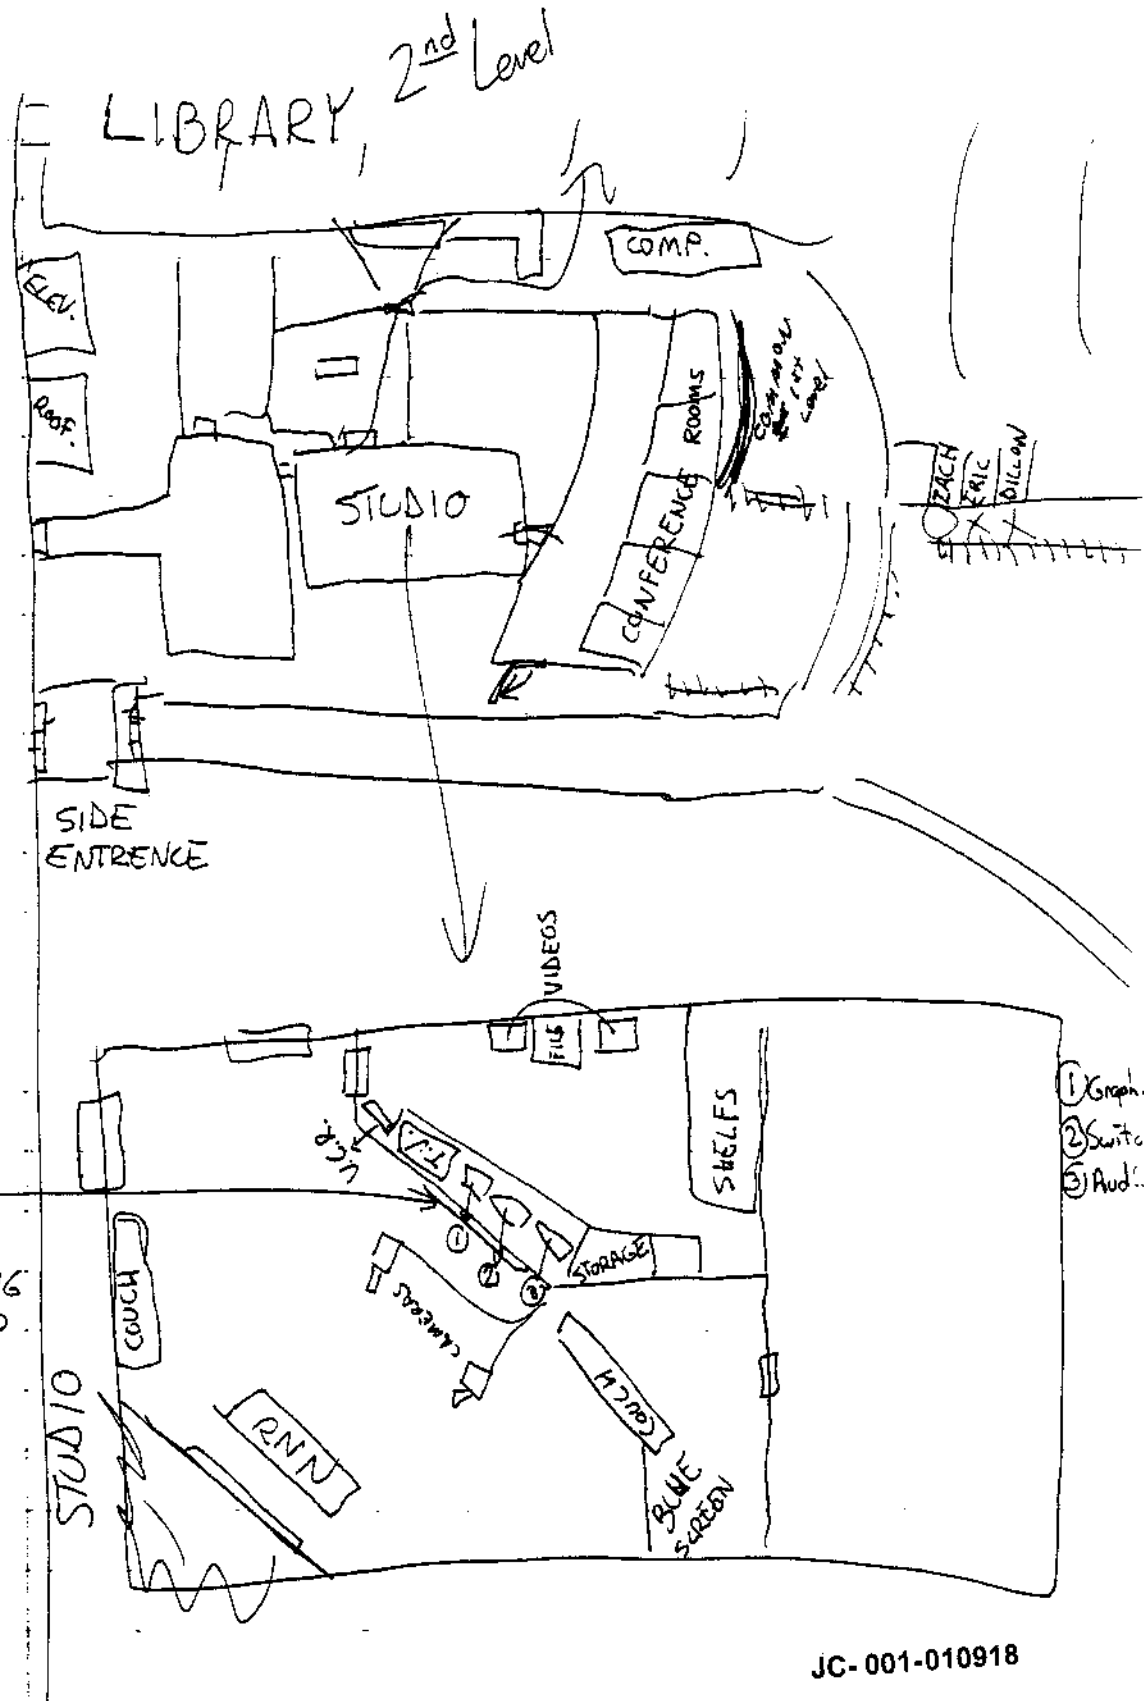

The interview with Veik was videotaped, and that videotape has been placed into evidence.

WRITTEN STATEMENT
BY ERIC VEIK
4-22-99

I met Eric & Dillion 1st Semester of my junior year (August 98). Eric was a part of my video productions class 1st Hour. Dillion had the same class 2nd Hour. Dillion would stop by 1st hour and talk to Eric. After a couple of weeks we got to know each other. As a group we needed to produce a video for the trimester. Dillion was usually included as part of the video because Eric helped him often. We all took part in a brainstorming session, and created ideas for videos. Some were brilliant & had outrageous ideas on very cool videos. Considering we were beginners at this and didn't know too much about what we were doing, so we started small. First, was an interview with Mr. Long. Eric wasn't thrilled about it, so we did a practice run with Eric as Mr. Long & Mike Vendengia as the interviewer. Eric said comments that were funny to us, but could reveal a hidden hatred towards that teacher. The real interview went smooth, and we moved on to something bigger. We thought up the idea of a car chase. *Dillion is excluded from the interview and car chase. The plan was that Mike Vendengia is a cop & Chris Walker (friend of Mike) is his assistend. They have to track down hoodlums that were conducting a violent act, myself & Eric.

It was like a taping of COPS. We called it the CHS Highway Patrol. We made the video. It started out Mike & Chris (in separate cars) driving out of school & up to behind McDonalds along Cool Mine. Once there, they found me & Eric beating a dummy. We picked it up, threw it in the trunk, & got away in Eric's car. They chased us to Clement where they stopped us & arrested us. Not bad for our 2nd Video. For a time, we couldn't think of any ideas, when Dillion & Eric bring a copy of a slapstick infomercial from MAD TV. It was hilarious and all of us came up with the idea of doing the same concept with different materials. The real infomercial is about a car wax that works, but they explain in detail what it won't protect against. They show & label every item being dropped on this car. In our production, we used a bike. Mike was the consumer. This ~~was~~ was filmed outside Eric & Dillions workplace. Those two were on the dropping random objects on the bike. One scene included Eric with a crowbar & Dillion with sledgehammer completely demolishing the bike. Unfortunately, this was not made into a production & the footage lost interest as more ideas arose. In Eric's spare time he compiled Hollywood movies involving action & weapons into a music video.

Get Rock,

No one from our group started in it. The music was a song called "Fire" which is hard rock. All scenes in this video involved clips of weapons, explosives, & destruction from the movies, Terminator 2, Heat, Starship Troopers, Aliens, & Predator. After that was done the semester was almost over. Dillion & Eric needed a business & video for another class. They created this idea and asked me to film it. It was "Hit men for Hire." Dillion & Eric were the hitmen, I was the victim & Mike was the jock harassing me. They used replicas of guns & spoke of killing in the video. I never heard if this video was successful in the Eric was doing it for. We had about 2 weeks left in the semester, & myself, Mike, Eric, & Chris W. wanted to make a murder mystery. We never completed this video. We only shot the opening scenes. Eric was excited about this & was really up for making it. The plot is this: Mike & Chris are cops trying to solve a murder. I am the new guy that pretends to be a cop but really I work for Eric who is the murderer. Nothing was conceived after that. The semester ended. I was learning about videos fast and was able to help them on one last video. Even thought myself, Mike, Eric & Dillion we in different video classes this semester, we knew that we made a good team and we get more done if we worked together. In spare time at school we discussed the plot, screenplay, & cinematography of this video. It was very well written by Eric & Dillion. Filming got started, and I noticed they put more on this video than I thought they would.

They ~~are~~ were swearing, smoking, and more serious about it. I played along. When I asked "why so blunt" they said "who cares, Talocco's the only person that is going to see it and he won't care. The plot is based on the movie "Vampires" starring James Woods. We were a small group of people going from town to town stopping radioactive clothing from taking over the world. They were very serious about this.

Eric was using military strategy in parts of this. Myself & Mike were on their sides, but we get injured & Eric & Dillion figure out a way to save us, and the movie ends with a very large explosion from a house that was put in using ~~video~~ editing technology. No explosives or live ammunition were used.

Narrative:

On 5-11-99 1205 I was contacted by Inv. Don Estep who had information a student a Chatfield High School may have in his possession enough gasoline and flares to blow up Chatfield High School. The student identified was Eric Veik, Inv. Estep told me he was contacted by Lt. Dennis Potter who spoke with the mother of John Ungerland who had a conversation with Eric the day before about being able to blow up Chatfield High School. It was reported Eric had in his vehicle a trunk full of gas and flares. I was also told School Resource Officer Deputy Neil Gardner had spoken with John Ungerland about the conversation with Eric Veik.

I along with Inv. Craig Schoshke, Inv. Geroge Mumma and SA Elaine Lipka responded to the school. During our drive to the school I made contact with Deputy Gardner by telephone. He told me Eric Veik was not due to arrive at the school until 1230 and it would not be possible to confirm his attendance until about 1245. Deputy Gardner told me he knew the vehicle Veik drove and would look for it in the school parking lot. He was not able to locate the vehicle I then asked School Resource Officer Deputy Lori Broviski to go into the school and locate Eric Veik and bring him to me. Deputy Brovski did locate him and escorted him to a vehicle where he was placed and taken to the South Substation of the Jefferson County Sheriff's Office. During my initial contact with Eric I asked him where his vehicle was. He told us he had parked in the church lot north of the school. Deputy Gardner was sent to the location to secure the vehicle pending a consent to search the vehicle or a search warrant was obtained. I then obtained a telephone number for his mother and made contact with her. After identifying myself I asked Ms. Veik to respond to the South Substation where we could speak with her son. She told me she would also contact Eric's father then they would both be in route to the substation.

After arriving at the substation I was contacted again by Inv. Estep who told me there were several leads for Eric and faxed the information to us. I was also able to speak with Lt. Dennis Potter who told me he had been contacted by the mother of John Lundgren and was told of the information concerning Eric Veik, he then called Captain Dan Harris of the Jefferson County Sheriff's Office Investigation Division who called Inv. Estep who in turn called me. It should be noted that during the time Eric was in our care he was not handcuffed or secured in any particular location. He was seated on the couch of the front office waiting the arrival of his parents. Eric did not ask why he was being brought to the substation nor was he questioned.

On the arrival of Eric's parents I identified myself and Investigator Schoshke who conducted the interview. I told them they were asked to respond to this interview based on information we had received. They were then advised of the rights by written form and allowed to speak with their son alone before deciding to waive their rights. They were aware the interview was to involve possession of explosives and or flammable material. After their discussion we were told they would be willing to speak with us. I then asked Eric if he knew why we need to talk. He told us he and other kids have been talking about the security of the school and were concerned it was not sufficient. He said they then began to talk about if it would be possible to get a device into the school and how it could be done. He said they also talked about the everyday household items which could be made into a bomb as apposed to the heavy artillery used by Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold. I asked what he meant by that and he said the guns and stuff they used. I asked who he had talked with and was told Andrew Thomas, John Ungerland and Nick Romanyshyn. I asked him why we would be interested in his car. Eric told me he did not know he said he did not have anything in the vehicle or at his home which could be used as a bomb. He told me he had left over props from the videos he produced were in the trunk. He said he did have road flares but these were a part of a road emergency kit for his car and they had been used to simulate dynamite in a video. I asked Eric what the conversation he had with the others he named was about. He said it was about getting a fifty five gallon barrel of gas into the school as a bomb and using a road flare to ignite it. I asked how he would know about anything like this and he said movies. Eric said he and Nick would brain storm ideas for video's that Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold would use. He said these videos must have been how they got their idea to do it. I asked Eric if he had made a statement about Eric and Dylan doing what they planed. He said this was when he returned to school and it was in retrospect about the videos and what the other kids have said about what happened. I asked him what movies he was talking about and he said about Mission R&N. He said the flares in his vehicle were used in it as dynamite . He also said he did have a toy gun in the trunk that was used in a movie but it did not look like a real gun. This was used in a play of Frankenstein then asked if he had any gas in the trunk of his vehicle. He said he did not have any gas in the car other than in the tank. He was then asked about the video's he made he said all the video's were in the school in the video lab or in his camera case. He said every foot of video he ever shot was in this bag. He told us he had left this bag in his math class. He said he told Inv. Diane Obberma about this. He said he also spoke white Inv. Chris Tomford and Inv. Jim Vonderohe about other things. I asked him what relationship he had with Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold he said he was the camera man. He said he would shoot the video and edit it. I asked him why he was the person who did this and was told they had asked him because he was recommended. He also said he was in one of the movies as the nerd they (Eric and Dylan) were hired to protect. I then asked him when he was with Dylan and Eric if they talked about what they had planned to do. He said they had talked about Hitler's birthday comming up and talked about a senior prank. He said he did not know what that would be. He said he did not care and did not ask. I asked what the video's meant to him. He said they were just things they put together and they really did not mean anything to him. I then asked him to go back to the discussions he had with the other guys about bringing a bomb to the school and how they got started talking about this. He said it was over the security. He said he talked to John the last time during fifth hour yesterday about it being possible to bring stuff into the school. He said he spoke to Andrew seventh hour yesterday and Nick while they were on their way to school. He then said the discussions started over seeing things about the security of the school that bothered them. Like seeing open access panels for the custodian and things like that. How you could put anything in them and close it up and no one would ever know. He said it was only talk he never planned to do anything or would ever even attempt to do anything like this. He said he did not believe anyone would think he really do anything like they talked about.

I then used the control forms sent to me by Inv. Estep to review the information other investigators had interviewed him about. He was asked about the videos and told us the bag he left in the school has all of his film. I asked him about making the gun simulations and he said he spoke with Inv. Vonderohe about this and being the one who made up the quote of the day. I then asked about the information he was told by Nic<sup>h</sup> about the bombs he saw. Eric told me he was told a few days after the incident the bombs Dylan and Eric had made were named "Atlanta" and the "Phynoix Project". He also said Nick saw Eric on the Monday before the incident happened at a stair well and Eric said he was finalizing plans for tommorow.

During the interview Eric did become emotional and cry when he was questioned on his statements and when he would admit to saying he had talked about bringing a gas bomb in to the school. He was also upset when he said he had made a statement about Eric and Dylan doing what they planned.

I then asked the Veik's if they would consent to a search of the vehicle Eric was driving. After reviewing the form they agreed. We then went to the church north of the highschool where the car had been secured by Deputy Gardner. The vehicle was opened and the vehicle was searched. Nothing of a explosive device was found other than the flares which we were told were in the vehicle.

After the interview was completed and the vehicle searched Inv. Schoshke and I agree that the statements made by Eric were inappropriate but not made as a statement he meant to carry out. Eric was then told to go with School Resource Officer, Deputy Garner and report to administration of the school to determine if he would be allowed to remain in school.

As members of the Columbine High School Task Force, C.B.I. Agent Jerry Means and IO Detective Jim Vonderohe, Arvada Police Department, were assigned Control number lead sheet DN1450 regarding a party identified as Eric Veik, a student at Columbine High School, who took videos of the two primary suspects in this case. This lead control sheet indicated that Eric Veik took videos of Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold for a school class project with the original videos being in evidence. The lead sheet further indicated that Zach Heckler told Eric Veik that Eric Harris' mother saw a large pipe bomb nicknamed "Atlanta" that was later detonated near Chatfield Reservoir. The lead sheet further indicated that Eric Veik was told by Nick Romanyshyn that he saw Eric Harris on 04/19/99 with a notebook. Eric Harris apparently made a comment that he was "finalizing plans for tomorrow." The lead control sheet further indicated that the above mentioned information had been given to Sergeant Chris Tomford of the Jefferson County Sheriff's Department on 04/23/99.

A second lead sheet with control #2128 that originally had been assigned to Sergeant Jon Watson and Detective Jeff Kreutzer, both of the Golden Police Department, indicated that Eric Veik had been identified on a video as making "gun simulation" during the filming of this video. This lead sheet was also given to IO Detective Jim Vonderohe and C.B.I. Agent Jerry Means in conjunction with them investigating control #1450.

On 05/05/99 IO Detective Jim Vonderohe responded to Eric Veik's residence which is located at 6222 W. Fremont Drive, Littleton, Colorado, Ph. (729) 981-0553 in order to conduct an interview with him. Upon contacting Eric Veik at his residence, IO also met a student friend of his who was identified as being Nicholas Paul Romanyshyn, dob: 09/10/81.

In first speaking with Eric Veik regarding the Columbine High School shooting massacre, he advised IO he had already been interviewed on two different occasions by law enforcement authorities. At this time he produced two business cards with one belonging to Sergeant Chris Tomford, Jefferson County Sheriff's Department, and the other belonging to Investigator Diane Obbema, also of the Jefferson County Sheriff's Department. He stated that Sergeant Tomford contacted him on 04/20/99 and conducted an interview with him during which time he turned over to her a video that he was involved in. Apparently this video also included Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold in it. Eric Veik advised IO this was the only video that he had and that it was titled "Hit Men For Hire." He further stated part of this video had a segment that pertained to "an intimidation scene." He further stated that this intimidation scene is on his computer at his residence but he gave the entire video tape to Sergeant Tomford.

Eric Veik further advised IO that he also was extensively interviewed by Investigator Dianne Obbema on 04/22/99 regarding the narrative information that IO had on the lead sheet pertaining to control #DN1450.

Due to the fact it appeared Eric Veik had been extensively interviewed on two different occasions by law enforcement officers regarding this investigation, IO decided not to interview him again regarding this matter.

IO at this time did conduct an interview with Eric Veik's friend, Nicholas Paul Romanyshyn, dob: 09/10/81, who resides at 7840 So. Lamar Ct., Littleton, Colorado 80123, with telephone number (303) 972-9754. Nicholas Romanyshyn stated he is a junior at Columbine High School as is Eric Veik.

Upon asking Nicholas Romanyshyn if he knew either Eric Harris or Dylan Klebold, he replied he knew Eric Harris fairly well. He stated he has known him just this semester and had a video class with him during 2nd hour. He stated he did not talk to Eric Harris a whole lot and that they just "chit chatted." Upon further questioning, Nicholas Romanyshyn stated they did not talk about guns, bombs or blowing up Columbine High School or killing anyone. He informed IO the last time he saw Eric Harris was on Monday, 04/19/99, in their 2nd hour video class.

Regarding seeing Eric Harris the last time on 04/19/99, Nicholas Romanyshyn stated he (Romanyshyn) was in the hallway outside the Tech Lab along with several other kids who were filming a video in the hallway. He stated that Eric Harris came along and sat down on the floor since he was in the same class. Nicholas Romanyshyn stated that Eric Harris asked if he was in the way with him advising him he was not. Nicholas Romanyshyn stated that Eric Harris had some white papers which he began writing on. Nicholas Romanyshyn then recalled that the other two individuals that were assisting him in filming the video were Mike Vendegnia who is a senior and Ryan Selchert who is also a senior.

Nicholas Romanyshyn stated he believes Ryan Selchert asked Eric Harris what he was working on with Eric Harris replying, "Plans for tomorrow." Nicholas Romanyshyn stated that Eric Harris made the statement in a normal voice. Nicholas Romanyshyn then stated that he joked to Mike Vendegnia regarding that statement by stating, "Yeah we'll come to school tomorrow and the school won't be here." He stated that Mike and he then laughed at that comment as they were walking away from Eric Harris. Nicholas Romanyshyn stated when he made this joking comment he does not know if Eric Harris heard them talking or what his response was if he did hear that statement.

Upon asking Nicholas Romanyshyn if he knew Dylan Klebold very well, he stated he did not and that he only knew him from the Fall

OBSERVATION/INVESTIGATION:

On 051499 I was dispatched to the Chatfield High School, Columbine High School portion of the day, to interview juveniles involved in a report of threats. On arrival I contacted Sgt. Webb and Investigator Schoshke who were interviewing another juvenile and had learned that Nicholas Romanyshyn may have also over heard a conversation with Eric Veik, where he was talking about bringing bomb making materials into the school.

I contacted Assistant Principal Karen Studenka, who located Nicholas, and then made a call to his mother and advised her of my intent to interview him in regards to this information. Susan Romanyshyn told Studenka that she would like to be present for the interview, if we could wait which we agreed to do.

With Mrs. Romanyshyn present I advised Nicholas that he was not in trouble, but that I did need to speak to him about a conversation he may have over heard. Nicholas stated that he would try to help if he could. I asked Nicholas if he remembered having a conversation with Eric Veik where he was talking about bringing a bomb made of gas and pipe. Nicholas stated that he was in a hall near the commons area when Eric and Vince started talking about how easy it would be to get a device into the school, because security was not that tight, but Nicholas didn't remember any talk of gasoline or pipe. I asked Nicholas if he had talked to Eric after we had talked to him, and he stated that he had, but it was general conversation. I asked Nicholas what the talk was about if it wasn't gasoline and pipe. Nicholas stated that yesterday (051299) Eric and Vince had been talking about how easy it would be to get something in the building in Vince's black Video camera bag, but no one had put anything in the bag that he knew of. I asked Nicholas how many times they had talked about it and he stated maybe one or two times. I asked Nicholas who else might have been around when this conversation was going on, and he stated that there was a kid named Mike Vendhenia there, and when he was there, they had talked about placing the video case by the door to Mr. Talocca's room then when he went to look at it they would yell "BOOM", then they all laughed, and that was all he could remember. I again asked Nicholas if there was something he was leaving out and he stated that Eric and Mike had talked about using a guitar case like "Antonio Banderas" had used in the movie "Desperado", and the two of them laughed at that.

I told Nicholas that I didn't believe his story that he knew nothing about what Eric was talking about with gasoline and pipe, because he rode with him every day to school. Nicholas then stated, well there was a time when Eric and some other kids talked at a picnic on like Sunday where they talked about using a road flair for something. I again asked Nicholas what that meant and he looked down then stated that they (Eric and the other kid talked about pretending that the flair was dynamite, then handing it to "Sid" who is the campus security lady. Nicholas stated that Eric said it in a kind of "violent, joking" way. I asked Nicholas what that meant, and he stated that it was like he meant to hurt her.

I concluded my interview with Nicholas and his mother and asked them to call me if they had any further information to share.

At 2045 hours this date, I received a page from Nicholas and his mother. I contacted them at their home by phone, at which time Nicholas stated that he was concerned that he would be getting Eric in more trouble if he told me everything he had herd, but he needed to tell me that the flair was a theater prop that was made to look like dynamite for a video they were making, and that was what they had talked about at the picnic that they would hand to "Sid". Nicholas assured me that he knew nothing about the gas or pipe stuff that I had talked about. I thanked Nicholas and his mother for their cooperation and again encouraged them to call me if they thought of anything else.

No further action taken by this Investigator.
